

TOFA's 2010 Stage à la Plage will take place on Friday 12th March at Rendezvous Observation City.

2010's Stage will begin with breakfast at 7.45am, and close at 5pm.

Invited guests include

- Sarah Pavy (Perth / Melbourne) Confirmed
- Ghislaine Barbe (Sydney) Confirmed
- Lesley Parris (New Zealand) Confirmed
- Kathy MacFarlane (Melbourne)

We encourage you to bring an activity, task or resource with you that has worked particularly well for you and share it with your colleagues at the Stage.

This conference will assist in the professional development of teachers of French and will enable delegates to:

- acquire teaching strategies for use in the French classroom
- consolidate understandings and access to resources for teaching French to all levels
- develop ideas for promoting the teaching of French
- consolidate networks for professional support
- interact using French
- provide opportunity for reviewing resources and support materials

The Stage is subsidised by the French Embassy through JAG Funding, and convened by the TOFA committee.

At the Stage lunch, the presentation of the Marie-Louise Laurent Award for Outstanding Contribution to the Teaching of French will be awarded.

For information about Rendezvous Observation City, please visit the website:
<http://www.rendezvoushotels.com/Perth/>