

International Year of Languages “Languages Matter”

MLTAWA Mini - Conference

Keynote speaker: Matthew Absalom

8:30am – 3:30pm

Saturday, 30 August 2008

Senior School Building - Mt Lawley SHS
Woodsome St, Mt Lawley.

Draft program

- 8.30am Coffee & registration
8.55 Welcome and Opening – MLTAWA President.
9.00 Keynote address - Matthew Absalom (University of Melbourne)
Morning tea
11.00 Strategies to increase control & decrease everyday stress in the classroom, to benefit teacher's health and wellness - Nina Bivona
Lunch
1.30pm Concurrent sessions: Learning, teaching and promoting languages through blogging. – Penny Coutas; Introduction to Stream A PSP (Professional Standards Project); WebWiz software – Matthew Absalom; Fra Amici course – Juliana Burman (TBC); Languages in Primary Schools (TBC)
3.00 Expert panel: Update on local/national projects

Morning tea & lunch provided

$15 MLTAWA members $80 Non-members ($65 membership* +$15)

* $65 includes membership to MLTAWA, AFMLTA and one unilingual
$57 MLTAWA/AFMLTA only i.e. no unilingual ($42 membership+ $15)
Special rates for pre-service teachers & half day attendance

Registration

Please email the following information to mltawapd@live.com.au

In the subject line of the email write: conference registration

- Your name
 School/organisation
 Languages & year levels you teach
 Are you a: MLTAWA member non-member

On receipt of your email you will receive an email acknowledgement including further information on sessions and details on how to pay your registration fee.